The Panhandle Tiger Bay Club, established in 1977 by the late Pensacola News Journal columnist Pat Lloyd and John Broxson, is a non-partisan membership group of men and women who are interested in public policy issues and politics. The Club brings in prominent speakers who address topical issues and present ideas intended to provoke curiosity and provide insight, as well as generate debate and community discussion.

Members are diverse in age, education, occupation and interests. The Club accepts members from all races, ethnic groups and social and religious backgrounds. A volunteer Board of Directors, elected annually from the membership, manages the Panhandle Tiger Bay Club.

The Panhandle Tiger Bay Club holds seven luncheon meetings each year, and an annual dinner meeting, usually in September. Member dues cover the cost of meetings, meals, speakers and mailings. Dues may be paid annually or quarterly. Current dues are $300 per year if paid in quarterly payments of $75, or $275 per year if paid in full in January. No refunds are made for missed meetings and membership is not assignable. Members may bring guests for an additional charge.

An important goal of the Panhandle Tiger Bay Club is to ensure that the membership represents a cross-section of people in the community. Such diversity makes club membership a more interesting experience and encourages wide dissemination of ideas and issues brought to the community by guest speakers.
